VACANCY ANNOUNCMENT FOR

RECTOR
ALL SAINTS' ANGLICAN CHURCH
Woodbridge, Virginia

All Saints' Church is seeking an experienced, orthodox, Anglican Rector to lead an established, diverse, and prayer-driven congregation into the next chapter of its history of serving God and the people of eastern Prince William County, Virginia.

We are seeking a servant leader who is committed to personal and corporate prayer, the study and practical application of God's Word in Holy Scripture, Christ-centered corporate worship, and who operates under the guidance and in the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Applicants for this position must:

- Have a lively, deep, and growing faith in Jesus Christ
- Have a passion for teaching and preaching the truths of the Bible in a way that enables others to understand them and motivates people to apply them in their daily lives
- Have the ability to recruit, train and encourage leaders within the congregation
- Have a passion for developing disciples who are able to disciple others
- Have knowledge of and demonstrated experience in congregational growth, development and stewardship
- Can communicate clearly, collaborate effectively, and coordinate efficiently
- Have demonstrated the ability to plan ahead and the flexibility to adjust those plans when circumstances dictate
- Support the ordination of women and value their ministry
- Have had previous experience as Rector of an Anglican congregation (ideally 4 or more years)
- Is available to begin ministry at All Saints' in early 2019 (ideally by February 28, 2019)

Applications must include a cover letter, resume/CV, a spiritual biography, web links to recordings of 3 recent sermons (or sermon texts if recordings are not available) and a minimum of 3 references. Applications may be sent electronically to search@allsaintswoodbridge.org, or mailed in hard copy to:
