

Truro Anglican Church | | Summer 2018 Internship

Summer College Intern (stipendiary)

Dates: June 7th through mid-August

Primary Responsibilities:

- Responsible for planning, leading, and executing weekly kids ministry during weekday adult programming partnership with the rest of the intern team
- Responsible for leading a kids ministry small group every Sunday morning
- Responsible for helping the Family Ministries team set up and execute Sunday morning
- Responsible for helping plan and lead youth events
- Responsible for leading youth Bible studies as assigned
- Interns will pursue relational ministry opportunities with Truro Youth
- Interns will help plan and will serve as leaders for our youth mission trip
- Interns will help plan and lead Genesis Arts Camp, our VBS program
- Other duties as assigned

Other:

- Interns work full-time and serve as vital members of the Family Ministries team (serving kids, youth, and families at Truro) in every way. We expect our interns to be responsible, initiative-taking, and leaders. Interns don't just assist, but they lead, plan, and teach.
- Interns participate in the full life and ministry of Truro Anglican and participate as full members of the Truro staff for the summer.
- We don't expect our interns to be perfect, but we do expect interns to be committed disciples of Jesus.
- This internship is with the Family Ministries team, so we expect interns to enjoy being with kids and teenagers.
